THE LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

CONTINUES: The Priest and Deacon takes the gifts (bread, water and wine) and place on the Altar. The Priest washes his hands; then gives an invitation to the People to prayer: ALL PEOPLE STAND AND SAY "May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church." The Priest will begin the Eucharistic service of praise and thanksgiving, the central prayer of worship. We are to lift our hearts to God, and offer praise and thanks as the Priest addresses this prayer to the Father through Jesus Christ. TOGETHER we join Christ in his sacrifice, celebrating His memorial in the holy meal and acknowledging with him the wonderful works of God in our lives. WHAT IS NEXT? COME AND SEE!

EDUCATIONAL CORNER

FIRST READING: When you read this short reading from Joshua, you see the Lord talking to Joshua. He is explaining that they do not have to worry about the people of Egypt any more. The Chosen People received from God distinctive signs and symbols that marked its liturgical life. These are the signs of the Covenant: Circumcision of the men, anointing and consecration of kings and priests, laying on of hands, sacrifices, and above all, the PASSOVER. Our Church sees in these signs a prefiguring of the sacraments in the New Covenant. (CCC 1150)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: This psalm was written by King David in thanksgiving to God who delivers the Just. The Lord is rightly given credit for the protection and ultimate prosperity enjoyed by the righteous, whose righteousness not only consists in obeying the Law but also is primarily connected to humility and repentance before God. (CCC 1706)

SECOND READING: Paul tells the Corinthians about how he originally saw Jesus as a mere man. Once he encountered Jesus, he saw him for who he is, the Messiah, the Son of God. We are a new creation: The waters of Baptism cleanse us of Original sin and give us new life and are raised up with him, created anew. By redeeming humanity, all of creation is made to share in Christ's Redemption. Just as Christ was sent by the Father to reconcile us to him so does Christ send forth his ministers today to reconcile us through the Sacraments.

GOSPEL: This beautiful story told by Jesus to the Pharisees and scribes when they complained about him eating with sinners. He explained about this man who had two sons, and the younger one was not satisfied with his home and family. He asked his father for his part of the inheritance and left home. He lived a terrible and evil life until he hit "rock bottom". He was actually eating in the pig pens with the pigs. He thought of his Father and decided to go home and beg for mercy and repentance. His Father welcomed him with open arms and love, just like the Good Shepherd would with His lost sheep. The really sad part of the story is about his brother....He did not welcome his brother, He did not FORGIVE HIM. Every Christian is called to be a good shepherd to family members and friends, leading them always to Christ. LET'S ALL PRAY AND FORGIVE OUR BROTHERS IN CHRIST.9 (CCC 545)
