Dear RCIA 2016 Catholics and fellow Parishioners:

Journeying toward perfection and seeking to realize the desire of Christ: "Be perfect as your Heavenly Father is perfect". Matt 5:48 This post-baptismal catechesis is a time for the community and neophytes (new to a belief, convert) together to grow in deepening the Paschal mystery and in making it a part of their lives through mediation on the Gospel, sharing in the Eucharist, and doing works of charity.

The basic maturity which gives rise to the profession of faith is not the final point in the process of continuing conversion. The profession of baptismal faith is but the foundation of a spiritual building which is destined to grow.

We have entered the phase called, "Mystagogy" or "interpretation of mystery". It is the final period of the initiation of adults (RCIA). During this period, the meaning of the Sacraments, dogma and the Catechism will be explained in more depth. It is a glorious time and we ask for all Parishioners, new and old, to attend further classes.

I would like to thank Fr. Bean for being our true "Father" and spiritual leader throughout the classes this year. I would also like to thank Thom Price, Adrienne Price, and Dr. Jeff Baumbach and his wife, Leigh, Kenna Rice, Carla Eason and Stephanie Eason, Isaac and John-Caleb Vacheresse and Patrick Ehret. I would like a special thank you to David Vacheresse for his teaching and complete love and dedication for the RCIA class. And I thank you for your friendships, love and support. May your life be filled with the Joy of the Gospel and the confidence you are part of the One, Holy, Catholic Apostolic Church, the Holy Roman Catholic Church.

Yours truly,
Eileen Vacheresse

We cannot thank you or put into words just how much you mean to all of us. May God bless you all for what you're doing, and what you have done to make American the "Land of the Free and the Home of the Brave".

Light Weigh One King is coming to St. Theresa

Light Weigh One King is a 12 week Bible Study/DVD program designed to help members grow in relationship with Jesus Christ and increased health through weight-loss and healthy eating. The program is recommended by parish nurses and doctors for weight-loss & health, and chosen by Prevention Magazine as a safe and healthy-faith based diet. New research shows church based meetings increase people's weight-loss success. There are no weigh-ins. Let Our LORD and King help you break free from anything keeping you chained! A One King Orientation will be held on Wednesday April 6th at 6:15 p.m. Hope to see you there! If you have questions call 205-914-9136.

Thank you!

QUICK GRASP OF CATHOLIC FAITH: CANON LAW

After the sign of peace, the Christians are gathered for the "breaking of the bread"... another name for the Mass. The Priest breaks the host over the paten (a small gold plate) and place a small piece in the Chalice and says quietly to himself "May this mingling of the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ bring eternal life to us who receive it." Meanwhile, the people say "LAMB OF GOD, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. (3 times) The last words are "grant us peace". Then we ALL KNEEL and pray in silence. We voice words of humility and hope as our final preparation before meeting Christ in the Eucharist. (C. 205,213,843) PRAISE GOD FOR OUR BLESSING.

(Year - C) Today's readings:	Acts of the Apostles 5:12-16; Revelation 1:9-11a, 12-13, 17-19; John 20: 19-31
3rd Sunday of Easter	Acts of the Apostles 5:27-32,40b-41; Revelation 5:11-14; John 21:1-19 or 21:1-14

EDUCATIONAL CORNER

FIRST READING: Many signs and symbols of the Holy Spirit were performed upon the people at the HANDS OF THE APOSTLES. Many new converts came to the Church on account of the works of healing performed by the Apostles— in the name of Jesus. The people would put their sick and dying on cots in the streets where Peter had to walk because they felt that even if Peter's shadow fell on their bodies, they would be healed...When you read Acts, Chapter 5, you will be amazed at how the people flocked to the Apostles to be saved. (CCC 699)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: This wonderful song of thanksgiving starts with "O give thanks to the Lord, for his MERCY endures forever." The Church is often compared to a building, or temple, of which Christ is the foundation and cornerstone. He is our "cornerstone" and it is wonderful in our eyes. The ending of the song is "O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, for his mercy endures forever! (CCC 756 & 1808)

SECOND READING: This astonishing story is taken from the Book of Revelation written by the Apostle John while he was exiled to the island of Patmos. John had a vision of Jesus Christ who told him to give this message to the seven churches and also to every Christian community. These are the major teaching of our Lord, "The Lord's day is Sunday; the day of Christian worship in commemoration of the Resurrection are the main two. The names of the seven churches that the letters were sent are: Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea. (CCC 1166-1167)

GOSPEL: The Apostle John told this wonderful story following the Resurrection of Jesus. The door was locked and all the Apostles were there together. Jesus came to them and said "Peace be with you". Christ had a glorified Body with the marks of the Crucifixion in a glorified form as a sign of resounding victory. The bodies of the just will also be glorified at the Final Judgment. Jesus breathed on the Apostles and they received the "Holy Spirit" from Christ and they were empowered to act in His name. The Apostles were the very first ordained priests. Power to forgive sins was a vital part of their role of sanctifying the people. Doubting Thomas became a believer and said "MY LORD AND MY GOD"...ALL CHRISTIANS ARE HIS SONS AND DAUGHTERS BY ADOPTION THROUGH BAPTISM AND THE GRACE OF THE HOLY SPIRIT. (CCC 443, 654, 660, 2795)
