The Level of Woman = The Level of Civilization

The level of any civilization is always its level of its womanhood. In as much as woman is loved, it follows that the nobler a woman is, the nobler man will have to be to be deserving of that love. That is why the level of any civilization is always its level of its womanhood. — The Venerable Archbishop Fulton Sheen "Women Who Don't Fail."

EDUCATIONAL CORNER

FIRST READING: The Book of Isaiah is considered a summary of the faith of Israel in the Old Testament and a gateway to the Revelation of Jesus Christ in the New Testament. The first part of Chapter 66 is a prophecy that repeats the need of worship and sacrifices. Today's reading is the second part of Chapter 66 and it speaks of the New Eve that gives birth to many people who join the faith. Mary is a type of the CHURCH and also called the New Eve since, through her faith and obedience, the Son of God made man enter into the world to redeem all people from sin. The Church herself is presented in motherly terms; hence her traditional name is HOLY MOTHER CHURCH. (CCC 1450-1453, 239,370)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: The author of this song recalls God's history of delivering Israel from its troubles, most notably from the oppression of the Egyptians. Although God "tested" Israel, He remained faithful to his people. The author's nature of his own personal deliverance is not clear, but the psalmist clearly saw it as a continuity of God's steadfast love for his people and the fruit of his own efforts to remain faithful to God's covenant. (CCC 220)

SECOND READING: Paul's teachings at the end of his visit to the Galatians explains that circumcision, the sign of the Old Covenant, no longer has any value and, thus, should not be a reason to boast. The only thing we can boast about is our redemption through the Cross of Jesus Christ. "marks of Jesus" Just as slaves were branded by their owners, Paul considers the scars of the persecutions he had endured for the Faith to be his brand as a slave of Christ. (CCC 1461,1951)

GOSPEL: SEVENTY...This number represents the seventy elders appointed by Moses and the seventy nations mentioned in Genesis, symbolizing that the Gospel and its message of salvation would be preached not only among the Israelites but also to all nations. Jesus gave the "seventy" explicit directions for all that they were to teach. Jesus explained that the fifth precept of the Church teaches that the faithful have an obligation to contribute toward the support of those who minister to them. They also taught that Sacramentals of the Church include the blessing of persons as well as well as objects such as houses, vehicles, sacred images, medals, and rosaries.

BAPTISM: (CANON LAW 849) Baptism, the gate to the sacraments, necessary for salvation in fact or at least in intention, by which men and women are freed from their sins, are reborn as children of God and, configured to Christ by an indelible character, are incorporated in the Church, is validly conferred only by washing with true water with the required form of words. In the Canon Law rules, there are eleven (11) different types of items that must be considered before the Baptism takes place. Many questions must be answer first! 1) How old is this person? 2) Has the parents and sponsor decided on a name? 3) What day is available (Sunday or Easter Vigil ALWAYS) 4) Where? Always in a Church or Oratory, not at home only at a hospital if the diocesan Bishop has decreed it acceptable. All Churches are to have a baptismal font. This one paragraph has covered eleven (11) laws. We will finish BAPTISM next week. PRAY TO THE HOLY SPIRIT.
