Honoring our Past - Building our Future

St. Theresa of the Child Jesus - Parish Life Center

Pledges Received: $654,889

We have reached 66% of our goal! Thank you to all the parishioners and friends of St. Theresa who have joined the campaign!

Special thanks to those who have paid their initial pledge and continue to add donations to the building fund... and those who did not complete a pledge card but contribute with their yellow Development envelopes each month!

If you know of anyone outside our parish community who would be interested in helping the campaign drive with a charitable contribution, please give them a pledge card, or let Fr. Bean know.

...God Bless You for your Generosity!

WE RECYCLE... bring your aluminum cans ONLY. All proceeds will go to our Youth Group.
Thanks for your support!

PSR NEWS

PARISH SCHOOL OF RELIGION

- PSR classes resume this Sunday 9/11 at 9 AM. Please make sure to have your children arrive on time.
- Brother Marion from St. Bernard Abbey will be visiting with us on 10/02/16 during PSR classes. He is going to talk to us about his vocation and how it came to be, what life is like as Monk, etc. The kids don't want to miss this, please make sure they are in attendance that day!
- Next Sunday is Catechetical Sunday. Remember to thank our Catechist for their hard work and dedication. It is such a blessing to have Catechist who absolutely LOVE to teach about Jesus and our Church.

Prayer for Catechist and Parents

Your faith is like a single flame from a match stick, flickering quietly. What seems like an insignificant light in the darkness sheds light enough for others to find their way and so it is for parents, teachers, leaders and directors of Religious Formation and Education. You nourish your little flame with a community of faith believers, with participation in the Church, with your study of the Church, with your prayers and with your growing relationship with God. In your words and actions children and adults alike will not only learn the ways of the Church. But will see the Light of Christ in your eyes and desire to find it in their own. As you grow in your faith and continue on your journey, may you find the strength and wisdom to share your flame with others. May God continue to be the oxygen that allows your flame to grow and never be extinguished, May God continue to whisper His wisdom in your ears, breathe life into your words and shower you with His grace of unconditional love so that you may share it with all whom you encounter all the days of your life. Amen

Goretti Prayer Group

We are very excited to begin a new chapter in the Maria Goretti group! We are now going to be focusing on our prayer lives and discussing the importance of the verse "Rejoice in your hope, be patient in tribulation, be constant in prayer." (Romans 12:12) We will begin the class by praying the rosary and offering up prayer intentions. We will include and learn about different ways of prayer as well. We will discuss different ways to seek and find Our Lord in the midst of school, work, relationships and life! We have many fun activities coming up and we are so excited and blessed to introduce The Maria Goretti Prayer Group! St. Maria Goretti...pray for us. St. Therese of Lisieux...pray for us. God Bless you all, Brooke Woodard, Eileen Vacheresse, and Stephanie Meyer

(Year - C) Today's readings:	Exodus 32: 7-11, 13-14; 1Timothy 1: 12-17; Luke 15: 1-32 or 15: 1-10
25th Sunday Ordinary Time	Amos 8:4-7; 1Timothy 2:1-8; Luke 16:1-13 or 16:10-13

EDUCATIONAL CORNER

FIRST READING: The Israelites turned to the worship of the golden calf, God forgave them and remained faithful to them because of the intercessory prayer of Moses. We are all fortunate to still have such a God. HE stood in the breach between humanity and God, and in doing so provided a model that would inspire Israel's leaders for years to come. God had always been a just God, and now he began to manifest more clearly his unbounded forgiveness. (CCC 210,2112-2114,2577)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: This is a prayer written by King David after Nathan the Prophet came to him after his affair with Bethsheba. That prayer gives a moving teaching on the destructive effects of sin and the requirement of a worthy repentance. Even for the most serious of sins, God stands ready to forgive the contrite heart. Fundamentally, every sin is an offence against God; in fact that is the very definition of sin. Sin is always a rejection of God's love.(CCC 298,431,1428,1850,2100)

SECOND READING: Our wonderful St. Paul recounted his own conversion from a persecutor of Christians to an Apostle for Christ. God often uses individuals with serious weaknesses so his power and presence might shine through all the more. Paul's own story of receiving mercy and forgiveness for his own terrible sins should lend hope to those who seek forgiveness for their own serious sins. Remember that FAITH IS A GIFT FROM GOD. (CCC 142, 545)

GOSPEL: Today, sharing a meal is a sign of friendship and so was it in the time of Jesus. We find Jesus invited to share a meal with tax collectors and sinners. The Pharisees were watching Jesus very carefully. They noted that Jesus was accepting the sinners. Jesus was well aware of this and he took the opportunity to show that his mission is to call sinners to repentance, for which there is more reason to rejoice than there is over those who have never strayed from the faith. Jesus Christ, the Good Shepherd, desires to call all his people together as one and to reconcile the wayward sinner back into the fold. (CCC 545)

QUICK GRASP OF CATHOLIC FAITH: CANON LAW

OTHER ACTS OF DIVINE WORSHIP: The Liturgy of the Hours (C. 1173 -1175) The Church, fulfilling the priestly function of Christ, celebrates the liturgy of the hours, whereby hearing God speaking to his people and memorializing the mystery of salvation, the Church praises Him in song and prayer without interruption and intercedes for the salvation of the whole world.

Other members of the Christian faithful according to circumstances are also earnestly invited to participate in the liturgy of the hours inasmuch as it is the action of the Church. In leading their lives, clerics are especially bound to pursue holiness because they are consecrated to God by a new title in the reception of order as dispensers of God's mysteries in the service of His people.
