“MENTORING BOYS INTO VIRTUOUS CATHOLIC MEN” That is the motto of FRATERNUS, a national Catholic organization that has grown to over 20 chapters in 9 states. The largest chapter is right here in Birmingham! Boys, their fathers, and other spiritual men from over a dozen parishes in the Diocese have joined the organization and have benefited greatly from the bonding and learning experience. Beginning our 4th year in Birmingham, Fraternus meets at St. Paul Cathedral each Wednesday evening during the school year from 6:30 to 8:30. After an opening prayer, a small meal, and several games of dodge-ball, a short movie clip is played that revolves around one of the seven virtues – Faith, Hope, Love, Prudence, Justice, Fortitude, and Temperance. After the movie clip, a brief talk is followed by discussions and concluding prayers. All boys (grades 5–12), their fathers, and other spiritual men with a desire to mentor, are invited to attend any or all of the remaining September meetings (12th, 19th, and 26th) to learn more about Fraternus with no obligation. This program is especially beneficial for single moms who need their sons to have masculine role models; and for boys whose fathers choose not to participate. All adult men involved with the program are required to complete an online course in Abuse Recognition, and submit to a criminal background check. For more information, contact Terry Rumore at (205) 222-7204, and check out the Fraternus Birmingham website: www.fraternusbham.com, or the Fraternus National website: www.fraternusbros.org
